

Tim They're conducting some tests.

Steve But what do you think?

Tim

Steve If there isn't a chance, you should tell me. If there's nothing any of us can do anymore and we should all just give up, I'd rather know.

Tim I'm sure there's a chance.

Steve

Tim You might want to talk to her.

Steve Why? She's in a coma. Why would I talk to her?

Tim Some people find it helpful.

Steve

Tim Is there anything else I can do?

Steve Her family are outside. Can you ... make sure they have what they want, tell them what's going on, get them whatever they need.

And keep them out.
I don't want them coming in here.

Tim goes.

The music plays again. Grace enters.

Freya is sat on the edge of the bed.

Freya So – Dad bought into one of those cryogenic things and we've all been frozen at the point of death, you as well, revitalised only when medical science has the power to heal us.

Grace smiles.

Is that right?

Grace just looks at her.

Is that what's going on?

Grace You look better.

Freya I feel better. I want to have a look round. The future! Have you got flying cars?

Grace We don't need cars.

Freya And robots.

Grace You have no idea.

Freya When can I see?

Grace When you're well enough.

Freya I'm fine, look.

Grace We have some questions first.

Freya What about?

Grace Freya, the date of your preservation is of vital historical significance. It is said, that this was the turning point. The moment you fell, the place it happened, Legend has it that it was from that place at that time that the speech was made. From the bridge. From that moment. The tide turned. The world became better, and better until we solved the problems. All the problems. And we survived.

So. Did you hear it? Did you hear the speech? Is that why you were there?

Freya No. I don't know anything about it.

Grace This is important, you were on the bridge, in that time.

Freya Yes but –

Grace Why were you on the bridge, if not to hear the Solomon's speech?

Freya Solomon?

Grace Yes.

Freya Solomon on the bridge?

Grace Solomon, the greatest woman in the world, she walked to London, stood at the centre of the earth and changed everything.

Freya Solomon ... Mum. It's not Solomon. It's Sullivan.

Grace What?

Freya It's me. I walked all the way to the bridge, I stood in the centre of the earth.

Grace But Freya ...

Freya I'm Solomon. I changed the world.

Grace Freya you can't be.

Freya Yes! Why not?

Grace Because you died.
And Solomon ...
Solomon lived.

Sarah and Colin are in the hospital café. Sarah brings back two coffees.

Sarah There.

Colin Thanks.

They drink.

Colin How are you?

Sarah shrugs.

They drink.

Sarah Do you remember the jacket you wore at Suzie's party?

Colin What?

Sarah I just thought of it. You remember? It had shoulder pads.

Colin Yes.

Sarah It was far too big.

Colin My lucky jacket.

Sarah Well, that's what you used to call it –

Colin Yeah.

Sarah Lucky in what way exactly?

Colin It got attention.

Sarah You looked stupid.

Colin Like I said, attention.

Sarah Well ...

Colin From the birds.

Sarah Birds. Jesus.

Colin Got your attention.

Sarah You used to roll up the sleeves.

Colin Nothing wrong with that, not in the eighties.

He rolls up the sleeves of his jacket.

See?

She smiles.

Good look.

He unrolls them.
